Aaron Richardson and Arthur Dennison of Washington were business visitors in the city to-day.

"The Sainly Sinner," a five-reel Bluebird drama featuring Ruth Stonehouse, at the Bijou to-day. "Patria" to-morrow—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lander, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Lander and Mrs. William Flynn left this morning for Albany, N. Y., where they will spend several days as the guests of Leonard Lander.

Frank Stieff of Philadelphia, Pa., returned to his home to-day, after spending several days in Barre and Montpelier on business in the interest of the Lerner company of New York City. Mr. Stieff expects to join one of Uncle Sam's coast patrol fleets within a short time, as he received a wire yesterday morning from headquarters in New York to report at once.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Wanted, Friday night, at 8 o'clock, a good crowd to see "Greenbird"—adv.

Rev. Alvin Smith of Williamstown was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

"A Daughter of the Gods," last time to-night. Park Theatre. Special 12-piece orchestra—adv.

Fifty-acre farm, three good cows, horse, brood sow, farming tools, etc., at the auction at the H. F. Paton farm on the west hill to-morrow. D. A. Perry, auctioneer.

R. P. Bibby of Boston, a representative of the American Chile company, which has inaugurated an advertising campaign in the question for Adams' pepsin gum, is staying in Barre for a few days while awaiting orders to join the naval reserve for actual service. Mr. Bibby has been advised that class four of the reserves is to be called to the colors, and as he holds a lieutenancy in the reserves, he expects a call at any time. The gum man was in the American navy when Vera Cruz was bombarded in 1914.

At his camp in upper Graniteville yesterday, Dr. Joe W. Jackson kept open house to a dozen of his comrades in the Spanish-American war, the occasion being the 19th anniversary of the mustering in of the 1st Vermont regiment. Most of the veterans who assembled at Dr. Jackson's lookout are residents of Barre, but there was a sprinkling of men from out of town and if the observance was not as elaborate as in former years at Caledonia park, there was plenty to do in the way of sports and other amusements. Early in the afternoon a shore dinner was served, with the host in charge of the commissary department. Much interest centered around an impromptu wrestling bout, in which the honors were divided evenly between Dr. Jackson and George N. Tilden. Auto transportation from Barre to Graniteville was furnished and the return to the city was made early in the evening.

EAST BARRE

Patriotic rally at the East Barre opera house Friday evening. Among the speakers will be Rev. Fraser Metzger of Randolph and County Agent F. H. Abbott. Good music will be provided. All citizens are invited to assist in making the rally a real demonstration of loyalty to the flag.

Special for 10 days! Nearly new house about 15 or 20 rods from the car line near Emslie's greenhouse; all hard wood floors and a good, well-built home. Large piece of land. Price, $2,175; former price, $2,600. Would accept a payment of $300 as first payment, possibly less. Please bear in mind this is a modern, up-to-date house. A chance you may never have again. The D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency.

MONTPELIER

Capt. McMath Takes 16 Men to Fort Ethan Allen for Examination.

That the efforts of Captain McMath, commanding Co. H, V. N. G., who has been in the city for a week recruiting men for the company, have been successful was demonstrated this forenoon when he accompanied sixteen men to Fort Ethan Allen, the trip being made in three motor cars. Among the local young men who have enlisted and hope to pass the physical examination are Lloyd Parry, Raymond Colby, Merrill Harris, Fred Baird and Alex. Hall. Mr. Parry is employed in the Colburn and Fallon store, Mr. Colby at the Colton store, Mr. Hall at the National Life Insurance Co., Mr. Harris in the Montpelier National bank and Mr. Baird in the Abbey barber shop. The latter is a native of Canada but has taken out his naturalization papers.

While superintending the repair of a leak in the gas main on Court street near the Barney Carney residence yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, H. Carl Smith, an employee of the Capital City Gas company, was nearly asphyxiated. The workmen rushed to Mr. Smith when it was seen that he had been overcome and the Tenny company office on Langdon street, was asked to send the lung motor. The company hurried the life-saving machine to the scene in an automobile and efforts to revive Mr. Smith were so successful that he taken home in the automobile. His condition to-day was satisfactory.

Arrangements have been made by the food committee of the Montpelier committee on public safety to have the tractor owned by the Ladd farm in Worcester come to the city next Monday to commence plowing the land on Langdon meadow. The committee has secured the lease from the Central Vermont railroad.

Mrs. William Craig of Waterbury was operated upon yesterday at Heaton hospital, the operation being successful, and her condition is favorable although very serious.

Attorney-General H. G. Barber of Brattleboro and Drs. Stone and Whitney of the state laboratory of hygiene at Burlington arrived in Montpelier to-day, it having been decided to perform an autopsy on the body of Mrs. H. S. Boardman, whose death occurred at Heaton hospital yesterday, as the result, it is believed, of injuries sustained the night of April 2, when she was run over by a team on Main street. Martin Andrews, the Middlesex farmer and lister, who, it is alleged, drove the team the night of the accident, is out on bail of $700 fixed at the time he was arraigned on charge of breach of the peace directly after the accident. Upon the result of the autopsy depends whether or not Andrews will be charged with manslaughter. In the event that such a charge should be preferred, an information will be filed in county court by the state's attorney and bail will probably be raised to $5,000.

Failure of Barre and Northfield members of the Spanish-American war veterans of Washington county to make their appearance at Caledonia park yesterday for the annual outing of the organization resulted in the indefinite postponement of the re-union. A date may be fixed later in the month by the Barre and Northfield members of the association.

Mrs. D. P. Ring, delegate from the local lodge of Rutland to attend the Rebekeah assembly which is to be held to-day and to-morrow. Mrs. Ring was joined at Waterbury by Mrs. Henry Marshall, a delegate from the Waterbury lodge.
